Subject Tiffin Party held in the Dah Si Yang Restaurant on occasion of Double Tenth Festival.

Made by and Forwarded by D.I. Crawford

Between 12.30 p.m. and 1 p.m., October 10th, Mr. Dao Pah-chuen was interviewed by C.D.I. Sharman, D.I. Crawford and D.I. Pan Lien-pih at the Dah Si Yang Restaurant, 710 Foochow Road, where it was explained to him the embarrassment he was causing the Settlement authorities through demonstrations and poster distribution and the injudicious way he was using the Settlement for means of propaganda. It was impressed upon him that such might lead to incidents and mob violence and destroy the world wide sympathy China had gained recently in addition to making it very hard for the Municipal Police to maintain order in a place where thousands were seeking refuge. Mr. Dao Pah-chuen replied that he would do everything possible in an endeavour to persuade those responsible for the demonstration and poster distribution to desist, but he was not responsible for that part of the programme, only the slogans to be broadcasted and an appeal to the people through the press to be patriotic.
